PROFILE

Full-Stack Web Developer with hands-on experience in C++, C#, and web development technologies. I excel in creating dynamic, responsive web applications using Node.js, Express.js, React, Next.js, and Tailwind CSS. My background in both front-end and back-end development allows me to deliver comprehensive, user-friendly solutions with SQL and NoSQL databases. Always eager to learn and grow, I bring a strong foundation in coding and a proactive approach to every project.
